How to live like...

Drew Barrymore

Her Manhattan pad

Drew bought a duplex apartment in this West Village townhouse for its proximity to then-boyfriend Fabrizio Moretti.

$2.5 million

Her inviting ambiance

Drew makes hotels feel more like home with the help of the Tocca Candeleda Viaggio boxed set. It includes four travel-size candles in Tocca's most popular scents: Havana, Kyoto, Cleopatra and Grace (blue mercury.com).

$42

Her healthy glow

Drew stops into the Sonya Dakar Skin Clinic for the UltraLuxe Age Control Facial ($295, 310-553-7344). To keep her youthful complexion, she also uses Sonya's UltraLuxe Age Control Active Mask ($70, sonyadakar.com).

Her girls' night out

The actress and her best bud Cameron Diaz catch up at Italian eatery Il Sole in L.A. Try the veal Milanese, lobster ravioli and their famed tiramisu (dinner for two, approximately $120, 310-657-1182).

• $120

• $95

Her travel companion

Drew takes her Buddhist prayer scarf designed by Sir Alistair Rai wherever she goes; it has the word "Love" embroidered in gold. "It's great for London or New York," says Drew, "because you don't know when the weather can turn." (siralistairrai.com)

Her red-carpet glamour

Drew wowed the crowd at the Tribeca Film Festival's Lucky You premiere in this Dior by John Galliano bright-green silk bustier gown (Dior, Beverly Hills, Calif., 310-859-4700).

• $31,180

Her sparkling gems

Ms. Barrymore dazzled at the Golden Globes this year when she wore Leviev's diamond-heart earrings.

• $1.5 million

• $295 for facial

Her beauty booty

The new CoverGirl spokeswoman loves CoverGirl TruBlend Naturally Luminous Blush in Pure Romance; CoverGirl LineExact Liquid Liner Pen in Very Black; and CoverGirl TruShine Lipcolor in Fire Shine (drugstores). The eco-conscious actress also uses EO products, made with organic or wild-crafted essential oils. She's a fan of the Grapefruit & Mint Shower Gel, as well as the Rose & Chamomile Bubble Bath (eoproducts.com).
